European Capital of Culture 2011: Turku & Tallinn

Tallinn and Turku will be European Capitals of Culture next year. While the capital city of Estland is well known because of its fantastic old town, the Finnish seaport of Turku is generally wrongly underestimated.

Day 1: Arrival at the airport of Helsinki and coach transfer to Turku (165 km)

Day 2: Turku

The former capital of Finland is the oldest and the only medieval city in Finland (founded 1229). Among many sights, the 700 year old cathedral, the oldest fortress in Finland, a completely preserved wooden quarter from the 18th century as well as the Art- and the Maritime museums are especially worth a visit. On the 3-hours city sightseeing tour you will visit the cathedral and the fortress (entrance fee incl.). The afternoon is at your leisure. Overnight in Turku.

Day 3: Turku - Helsinki (165 km)

By coach you travel to Helsinki, the capital city of Finland, where a local guide will show you the highlights of the city (Senate Square, Sibelius memorial, Rock Church...) during a 2-hours city sightseeing tour. Overnight in Helsinki.

Day 4: Helsinki - Tallinn

In the morning you cross the Gulf of Finland to Tallinn by ferry. On a 3-hours city sightseeing tour you will discover the capital city of Estland. The main attractions are the two old towns (upper & lower old town) with perfect preserved buildings, churches, squares, towers and small cobbled roads from the 11th to the 15th century. Today Tallinn is listed on the UNESCO-list of world heritage. Besides the old town you will also visit Kadriorg Park (entrance to the castle not incl.) as well as the Pirita quarter. Overnight in Tallinn.

Day 5: Tallinn

In the morning you visit the Estonian open air museum of „Rocco-al-Mare“ which is a life-sized reconstruction of an 18th century rural/fishing village, which comes complete with church, inn, schoolhouse, several mills, a fire station, twelve farmyards and net sheds. The afternoon is at your leisure. Overnight in Tallinn.

Day 6: Tallinn – Helsinki – return flight
